

Consent Form for collection of information from: Royal Commission of Inquiry into Abuse in Care

The Dilworth Independent Inquiry has been established to examine and make findings on abuse which occurred at Dilworth School and why it happened. For further information please read the Inquiry's Terms of Reference on our website www.dilworthinquiry.org.nz.

This consent form relates to information the Inquiry needs to meet its objectives. Wherever possible, we will collect personal information about you from you. However, to ensure that we have all the information we need to meet the objectives of the Inquiry, we may need to collect personal information about you from other people or organisations. Remember, we will protect this information and use it only in accordance with our privacy statement.

This consent relates to information held by the Royal Commission of Inquiry into Abuse in Care (Royal Commission). If you have already provided your account to the Royal Commission, you may provide your consent for the Inquiry to request that information, and any other information the Royal Commission might hold about you.

Your personal details

Full name
Address
Email
Phone number

Your consent

By signing this form, you give your consent for the Inquiry to collect the categories of personal information outlined below from the Royal Commission, and for the Royal Commission to disclose this information to the Inquiry.

This consent relates to the following information the Royal Commission may hold about you. Please tick the information you consent to being provided to the Dilworth Independent Inquiry.

- ☐ Your witness statement.
- ☐ Transcripts of private sessions you have had with the Royal Commission.

I consent to the release of this information.

Signature:

Date: